the seating collection

What's
the science
of seating?

Seating is about providing right posture and support to the human body in its seated position.
The science of seating is the study of achieving this through a fusion of design, wellness & technology

Designed to be the best

All dewet chairs are tested as per guide lines of ANSI/BIFMA X5.1-2017: General Purpose Office Chairs-American National Standard for Office Furniture.

BIFMA testing is a true bench mark for durability of chairs, thanks to rigorous life cycle testing and certification of all critical components of chairs.
